Terms & Conditions – All Deposit Accounts

These Terms and Conditions are effective as of 26 July 2010.

1. Definitions

“Account” means a deposit account that the Customer has in his/her/their/its name(s).

“Bank” means International Banking Group (TCI) Ltd. and any company totally or partly owned by International Banking Group (TCI) Ltd.

“Customer” means any or all of the account holder(s) with whom the Bank has entered into these Terms and Conditions.

“Customer Service Centre” means a branch of the Bank.

2. General

2.1 These Terms and Conditions apply to each Customer, and to each Account held at the Bank, and replace any prior Customer Agreement and Disclosure Statement or General Regulations and Conditions.

2.2 The Bank may change these Terms and Conditions at any time, without prior notice. The Bank will give notice to Customers either directly in writing, or by posting notification in the Customer Service Centre and on its website, or via email.

2.3 Continued use of any Account constitutes acceptance of these Terms and Conditions, as may be amended.

2.4 These Terms and Conditions are in addition to any other agreements, or terms and conditions for services that the Customer may have with the Bank at present, or in the future. If there is a conflict between these Terms and Conditions and any other agreement or other terms and conditions, these Terms and Conditions are subordinate to the extent of the conflict, unless the other agreement or terms and conditions expressly states otherwise.

2.5 The Customer agrees to provide the Bank with such information and documents within the Customer’s power or possession as the Bank may require from time to time.

3. Use of Account

An Account may only be used for personal or business banking needs as declared by the Customer, unless the Bank is informed and accepts otherwise in writing.

The Customer confirms that all funds deposited to an Account are owned by the Customer. Unless the Customer notifies the Bank specifically in writing, the Customer certifies that no Account is being used on behalf of a third party. Regardless of any such notice, if the Customer holds any funds as a trustee or fiduciary, the Bank is not responsible to ensure that the Customer uses the funds in accordance with its trust or fiduciary duties, and the Bank recognises the Customer as the sole owner of the funds in the Account.

The Customer declares and confirms that it does not intend to hinder, delay or defraud any creditors, or engage in any conduct or use the facilities and services provided by the Bank for any use that is contrary to the laws of the Turks and Caicos Islands.

For Accounts titled “In Trust For” or “ITF”, the Customer remains the sole account holder of such Accounts, and the purported beneficiary is not the Customer.

Customers may access their Accounts at the Customer Service Centre, or as may be provided via fax, email, post or courier, internet, or via any other medium that the Bank may offer, each of which are subject to the Bank’s policies, procedures, or separate agreement.

4. Rates and Fees

Customer agrees to pay all fees for services as charged by the Bank, as set out in its Schedule of Fees, which may be amended at any time. Fees will be debited from the relevant Account.

The Bank may vary the interest rates charged or paid on any Account at any time. Current rates will be posted on the International Banking Group website and are available at the branch of the Bank.

5. Withdrawals and Deposits

The Bank accepts cash deposits only in United States Dollars.

The Bank may refuse to accept a deposit to an Account for any reason.

The Bank may require at least 2 business days notice for, and in its discretion may refuse, any cash withdrawals over 10,000 United States Dollars.

The Bank is not obliged to pay cash to a Customer in any currency other than United States Dollars.

6. Overdrafts

The Bank may set an overdraft limit for an Account, which may be changed, made payable, or revoked at any time, subject to a specific written agreement with the Bank.

Accounts that are overdrawn will be subject to fees and interest at the Bank’s then prevailing rates and will be debited from the account.

The Bank may refuse to honour a withdrawal request made against the Account or to pay a cheque or other payment if there are insufficient available funds including the overdraft limit in the Account, irrespective of any previous practice or acceptance.

7. Foreign Currency

The rates on foreign currency transactions may change at any time and are subject to market conditions at the time of execution, irrespective of any quote.

Credit balances in any foreign currency are carried in the name of the Bank with well established foreign correspondents, but at the risk of the Customer, including the risk of possible fiscal or other governmental measures (domestic and foreign), especially transfer restrictions.

If any item is sent for collection (to be cleared in a jurisdiction where the Bank does not have a correspondent banking relationship and account in the currency of that jurisdiction), the Customer shall not receive credit for such funds until the item has been cleared, and is subject to the Bank’s fees.

8. Standing Orders

If there are insufficient funds to execute a Customer’s standing order, the Customer’s instruction will not be processed. Such instructions may be processed thereafter if the relevant Account is funded. The Bank is not responsible for any consequential loss or damage that may result from the Customer’s insufficient funds, and recommends that the Customer contact the Bank to amend or confirm the standing order.

9. Fixed Deposits

Unless the Customer specifies in writing at least 2 business days before maturity of a Fixed Deposit, any such deposit will be renewed for the same term at the then prevailing interest rate.

If the Customer breaks a Fixed Deposit before maturity, break fees apply in accordance with the Bank’s Schedule of Fees.

10. Customer Instructions

The Bank may rely on all information provided by the Customer with respect to any withdrawal, credit, debit, transfer, wire, or payment instruction, including any routing or identifying names and numbers. The Bank has no duty to detect any inconsistency or error in such information.

Customer is solely responsible for full routing instructions, and agrees that in executing any Customer instructions, the Bank may make use of correspondents, agents, sub-agents, funds transfer and communications systems. The Customer agrees that if a Customer instruction does not designate an intermediary bank where appropriate, the Bank will select an intermediary bank on behalf of the Customer and the Customer agrees that the Bank shall have no liability with respect to such selection. To the full extent permitted by law, correspondents, agents, sub-agents, systems or intermediary banks shall be deemed to be agents of the Customer and the Bank shall not be under any liability for any errors, negligence, suspension or default of any of them, with all such risks being borne by the Customer.

Customer further agrees to ensure that the beneficiary of any funds complies with all applicable rules and regulations, and the Customer agrees to indemnify the Bank for any costs relating to non compliance by the beneficiary.

11. Communications and Instructions

Unless the Customer explicitly stipulates otherwise in writing, the Bank may rely upon and is hereby authorised to receive and act upon any communications it reasonably believes originates from the Customer (or the Customer’s authorised signatory or Attorney in Fact), whether by way of telephone, fax, email, or internet transmission (“Unauthenticated Instruction”). Such Unauthenticated Instruction binds the Customer and makes the Customer liable to the same extent as if the communication were signed and presented to the Bank as an original, except where the Bank has been grossly negligent or acted with willful misconduct.

The Bank may, in its sole discretion, choose to verify the authenticity of any Unauthenticated Instruction and request proof of identity and authority.

Whether or not the Bank performs any such verification, the Customer hereby releases, waives, holds harmless, and indemnifies the Bank from and for any and all actions, claims, costs, demand, damages, expenses, losses and liabilities incurred or sustained if the Bank acted, acted incorrectly, delayed in acting, or did not act on Unauthenticated Instructions, except where the Bank has been grossly negligent or acted with willful misconduct.

The Customer consents to an audio recording of any telephone call, and the keeping of a record of any electronic communication with the Bank.

The Customer consents that the Bank may at its sole discretion store electronic records outside of the Turks and Caicos Islands.

12. Signatures

The Bank shall be entitled but not required to verify further the authenticity of any authorised signature, other than by comparing it with the specimen on file. The Bank is not liable for the consequences of any forgery unless such forgery were readily detectable by reasonable observation.

13. Power of Attorney

The Customer may appoint an attorney-in-fact to act in respect of the Account, subject to the Bank's policies and procedures.

No appointment of an attorney-in-fact may be valid for a period beyond twelve months. Each attorney-in-fact must provide satisfactory Know Your Customer documents in accordance with the Bank's policies and procedures.

The Bank may choose to verify the validity of any appointment of an attorney-in-fact, and the Customer waives and holds the Bank harmless for any and all actions, claims, costs, demands, damages, expenses, losses and liabilities incurred or sustained if the Bank acted, acted incorrectly, delayed in acting, or did not act on the instructions of a person purporting to act as an attorney-in-fact, except where the Bank has been grossly negligent or acted with willful misconduct.

14. Joint Accounts

If more than one person is an account holder of an Account, then all such persons hold the Account as joint tenants, and not as tenants in common. Each account holder will be treated equally, with no person having any greater rights or access to the Account, irrespective of whether the Account was opened jointly at first instance, or whether the Account was made joint after the Account was opened.

Unless the Customer specifies in writing otherwise and subject to this clause, any one account holder of a joint account may give the Bank instructions with respect to the Account, including withdrawal of any portion of or the entirety of funds in the Account; sign cheques on the Account; accept statements, documents, notices or other information relating to the Account; deposit to the Account.

Upon the death of a joint account holder, each surviving Customer continues as an account holder until there is no surviving Customer, in which case the Account forms part of the estate of the last surviving Customer only.

Each account holder must authorise the opening and closing of the Account, and the addition or removal of any other account holder to that Account.

Upon the closing of a joint account, the proceeds of the Account will be disbursed as directed by all of the account holders jointly, or in default, by cheque or bank draft payable to all account holders jointly posted to the address on file.

Any liabilities owing to the Bank (including any overdraft) arising in any joint account are owed jointly and severally by the account holders.

15. Indebtedness

The Bank may debit an Account at any time if a cheque, instrument or other item is dishonoured or not paid for any reason whatsoever. The Customer waives presentment for payment, notice of dishonour, protest and notice of protest on all cheques, instruments and other items requiring such action.

Unless the Bank explicitly agrees otherwise in writing, the Bank may apply any credit balance in any Account against any debt or liability the Customer owes to the Bank or any Affiliate, without notice, and/or retain a debt collection service for such purposes without prejudice to instituting legal proceedings to recover any sum owed to the Bank.

16. Statements

The Bank will prepare a regular statement of account, which will either be posted to the Customer's address of record (and for joint accounts, statements will be posted only to the first named Customer), or made available to the Customer via the Bank's on-line banking service (if applicable).

The Bank reserves the right to charge a fee for the preparation and posting of account statements on paper so long as statements are available via the Bank's online service. Customers may opt to receive or not receive account statements on paper upon notification to the Bank.

Each statement of account will be deemed to have been received by the Customer, on the earlier of: the day it is actually received; the day on which the Customer becomes aware of facts that reasonably put the Customer on enquiry as to the possibility of errors, omissions or irregularities affecting the Account including any fraud or unauthorised activity; or 10 (ten) calendar days after the statement is dispatched or posted, whether the statement of account is actually received. The Customer shall further be deemed to have received a statement of account each time the Customer accesses the Bank's online banking.

The Customer agrees to examine every statement of account as soon as it is received or is deemed to have been received. The Customer shall immediately, and in any event no later than 30 (thirty) calendar days after receiving or being deemed to have received a statement of account, notify the Bank of any errors, omissions or irregularities, including any fraud or unauthorised activity, included in or preceding each such statement of account. Unless such notification is received in writing within 30 (thirty) calendar days of the date on which the statement of account is received or is deemed to have been received, the Customer agrees that the Bank's records are conclusive evidence of dealings with the Bank regarding the Accounts and are correct, complete, authorised and binding upon the Customer, and the Bank is and will be released from all responsibility for Account activity preceding the statement of account pertaining to such errors, omissions, irregularities, fraud or unauthorised activity, including the Bank's negligence, (but excluding such due to gross negligence or wilful misconduct).

The Customer agrees to notify immediately the Bank upon knowledge of facts that reasonably put the Customer on enquiry as to the possibility of errors, omissions or irregularities affecting any Accounts, including any fraud or unauthorised activity. The Bank is not responsible for any preventable losses if the Customer fails to notify the Bank immediately.

The Bank may correct any incorrect transactions upon its own discovery.

The Customer agrees not to object to the admission of the Bank's records, regardless of whether the information consisting of the records is stored electronically, digitally or otherwise, including statements of account, as evidence in any legal proceeding on the ground that such records are not originals, are not in writing, are hearsay, or are documents containing information extracted from a computer. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the Bank's records are conclusive for all purposes, including litigation, in respect of any transaction instructions to the Bank, and any other matter or issue relating to any Account.

17. Dormant Accounts

The Bank classifies all Accounts that have had no Customer-initiated transactions for one year as dormant, and may be subject to dormancy fees. The Customer may reactivate an Account in accordance with the Bank's policies and procedures as applicable at the time of application to reactivate.

The Customer forfeits any unclaimed balances after 6 years of Account dormancy if the balance is less than USD 1,000 (or equivalent in other currencies), or after 10 years of Account dormancy if the balance is more than USD 1,000 (or equivalent in other currencies).

18. Closure

The Customer may terminate and close any Account at any time upon written notice, effective only when such notice is received.

The Bank may withdraw or terminate any Account or any of the services it offers to the Customer at any time upon 10 days notice (or sooner if in urgent circumstances as determined by the Bank in its absolute discretion), and need not provide any reason for doing so. The Bank will have no liability to the Customer for any loss or inconvenience that may result, unless caused by the Bank's gross negligence or intentional wrongful act.

These Terms and Conditions shall survive the close of an Account, or termination or withdrawal of the Bank's services and will continue to apply with respect to determination of responsibility and resolution of all disputes for events, acts or omissions occurring before or circumstances as exist as at the time of closure, termination or withdrawal.

19. Compliance

The Customer acknowledges that the Bank must act in accordance with its policies and procedures, the laws, and regulations, of the Turks and Caicos Islands (and the other jurisdictions in which operates) and guidance issued by any governmental or regulatory body having jurisdiction over the Bank, relating to the prevention of money laundering, terrorist financing and the provision of financial and other services to any persons or entities which may be subject to sanctions. The Bank may take, and may instruct its Affiliates to take any action which, in its sole absolute discretion, considers appropriate to take to comply with any such policies and procedures, laws and regulations, and guidance. Such action may include but is not limited to: the interception, investigation, reporting of any payment messages and other information or instructions sent to or via the Bank; making further enquiries as to whether a name which might refer to a sanctioned person or entity actually refers to that person or entity; and reporting or disclosure of documents and information to any court or regulatory authority that has jurisdiction over the Bank.

Notwithstanding any provision of these Terms and Conditions, the Bank will be not liable for loss (whether direct, consequential or loss of profit, data or interest) or damage suffered by any party arising out of: (a) any delay or failure by the Bank (or any of its Affiliates) in performing any of its duties under these Terms and Conditions or other obligations caused in whole or in part by any steps which the Bank, in its sole and absolute discretion, considers appropriate to take in accordance with all such policies and procedures, laws, regulations, guidance or to protect the Bank's interests; or (b) the exercise of any of rights under this clause.

20. Account Holds

The Bank may, in its discretion, hold, freeze, or restrict any item or funds deposited to an Account, and to defer the Customer's ability to withdraw funds represented by such a deposit: (a) until the Bank actually receives (i) irrevocably the funds or payment for the item, and (ii) satisfactory source of funds documentation, if required; or (b) if the Bank is made aware of unusual or suspicious activity in the Account or in connection or arising out of the Account or any judicial proceeding that may give rise to a claim against or cause a loss to the Customer, the Bank, or an identifiable third party.

The Customer agrees to produce any additional documentation or information that the Bank may reasonably require to verify the purpose or source of any transaction.

FOR BANK USE ONLY
RIM
A/C

21. No Grant of Security Interest

Unless the Bank explicitly agrees otherwise in writing, the Customer may not give anyone other than the Bank any security interest in any funds in an Account, whether by assignment, hypothecation, charge, transfer or otherwise.

22. Own Legal and Tax Advice

The Customer acknowledges that the Bank is not qualified to advise on legal or tax matters and confirms that the Bank has not rendered any such advice.

The Bank recommends that all Customers obtain legal and tax advice from relevant professionals on matters affecting the Customer and the Customer's Account in all jurisdictions where the Customer may be subject to the laws of such jurisdictions.

23. Customer Compliance for Tax, Reporting, Trade

Under the laws of certain countries or jurisdictions, some persons may be required to report or comply with obligations imposed by such jurisdictions, including but are not limited to, laws and regulations in respect of tax, foreign exchange control, and restriction on trade. As a condition of opening and maintaining any Account with the Bank, the Customer specifically acknowledges and agrees that it does and will comply with any and all such relevant obligations. Upon breach of this condition, the Bank may close any Account, terminate a relationship with a Customer, report to a relevant authority, and may take any other steps it views as necessary. The Customer further agrees to indemnify fully the Bank for any losses, damages, or costs, incurred as a result of the Customer's breach of this condition.

The customer acknowledges and agrees that the Bank may report, forward, or disclose any information, data, documents, to any regulatory body, or make any withholding and payment, under any law, regulation, or rule (which may include relevant laws, regulations, or rules of the United States) that may apply to the Bank.

24. Customer Information

The Bank may collect credit and other information about the Customer from any source, and may use this information to establish and maintain a banking relationship with the Customer.

Subject to appropriate measures that ensure client confidentiality, the Bank may (i) provide and receive financial and other information about the Customer to Affiliates, and to any commercial or consumer reporting agencies or debt collection services; and (ii) engage third party vendors who may need to view or process financial or other information for or on behalf of the Bank. The Customer consents to and authorises such disclosure of information and acknowledges that any such disclosure does not breach any duty of confidentiality owed by the Bank to the Customer.

25. Indemnification

The Customer indemnifies and agrees to pay the Bank (and permits the Bank to debit any Account) for all expenses, costs, fees, damages (including legal fees and expenses on an attorney own client basis) the Bank may incur in dealing with any issue in relation to the Account, including but not limited to taking any steps to recover any sum due from the Customer, any matter arising out of the Customer's business with the Bank, responding to any process or order issued by any court or regulatory body, addressing any government or regulatory directive, any enhanced or further due diligence, or any research, retrieval, and production of information or documents.

In any event and under all circumstances, any and all damages or losses for which the Bank is liable to the Customer is limited to the Customer's actual, direct losses. Under no circumstance is the Bank liable for any consequential or indirect loss.

26. Complaints

The Bank encourages all Customers to communicate any dissatisfaction or complaint to the Bank. Customers may communicate with the Bank via online banking, by written correspondence, by completing a form or attending at the Bank.

27. Interpretation

These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Turks and Caicos Islands, and the Customer submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Turks and Caicos Islands on any matter relating to the Account(s).

If any part of these Terms and Conditions is held unenforceable for any reason, the unenforceable portion(s) will not affect the enforceability of the remainder of these Terms and Conditions, which will continue in full force and effect. So far as possible, the Bank and the Customer shall give effect to the intent of the unenforceable portion(s).

The headings in these Terms and Conditions are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the construction hereof.

Any terms or expressions importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.
