NEW STAFF JOIN INTERNATIONAL BANKING GROUP

On the 1st of October 2009, International Banking Group welcomed three new members of staff: Mr Paul Vaughn as Manager Personal Credit & Mortgages, Ms Diane Higgs as Operations Manager and Ms Kebba Morgan as IT Support Officer.

Speaking on their first day at TCI's newest retail and commercial bank, Ivan Browne, President & Chief Executive said:

"International Banking Group is delighted to welcome Diane, Paul and Kebba who join us this month. We are excited about the bank we are building and the people who will be working with us to build our success are a key part of that excitement.

We are also proud that our efforts to identify and recruit talented local persons have proved effective: all three of our newest staff members were recruited locally. It may not be possible to achieve this for every role, but we continue to be committed to doing everything we can to identifying, recruiting, training and retaining talented local persons."

With these new additions, International Banking Group has a total of 8 staff. Upon opening the bank will have a complement of 40 staff.

Mr Vaughn has worked in banking across the Caribbean including at Barclays Bank, now FirstCaribbean, in Barbados and most recently at TCI Bank Limited. He brings with him 19 years of banking experience specialising in credit and loans.

Ms Higgs joins International Banking Group following over 20 years at Turks & Caicos Banking Company Limited. She also recently successfully obtained a Bachelors and Master of Science (with Merit) in International Finance and Investment. She will take on the role of Operations Manger, overseeing the day-to-day operations of the bank such as cheque processing, purchasing, facilities, records, and security functions.

Ms Morgan, a graduate of Clement Howell High School, has since worked in the TCI for Cable & Wireless and UPS Logistics American Group, responsible for installing and maintaining the IT infrastructures of a number of businesses on island.

Kellie-Ann Evans-Hall, Vice President of Human Resources added:

“Paul, Diane and Kebba are fantastic additions to the team – not only are they of high caliber and have excellent experience, they also bring with them great personalities and positive attitudes which will contribute to making International Banking Group a rewarding workplace for all our staff.”
